DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 6-7, 10-11 and 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Goldberg et al. (US 5,317,879 A).

With respect to claims 1, 10 and 16, Goldberg discloses a magnetic resonance imaging assembly comprising (Abstract; as seen on Figure 1): a outer thermal shield having an operational temperature (#20 and #21); and a cold head sleeve assembly comprising: a cold head sleeve (#10), a plurality of braid elements (copper ropes #17, #18, #33 and #34 braided) mounted to a cooler block (cooper station #12 in stage 1 of sleeve), said plurality of braid elements connecting said cold head sleeve to said cooler block (as seen on Figure 2 top view); a highly thermally conductive block (interfaces #23, #37, #38) mounted between said cooler block and said outer thermal shield (as seen on Figure 2), said highly thermally conductive block welded to said outer thermal shield and welded to said cooler block (Column 3, lines 21-40), said highly thermally conductive block having greater thermal conductivity than said outer thermal shield (Column 2, lines 56-62).

3. With respect to claims 6 and 11, Goldberg discloses a cooler block comprised of copper (Column 2, line 63).

Art Unit: 2859

4. With respect to claims 7 and 15, Goldberg discloses said operation temperature is less than 50 degrees Kelvin (Column 2, line 63).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-5, 8-9, 12-14 and 17-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
